

Methodology

- The general form of the equation used to determine LOD is of the form:

$$LOD = k * s_{zero}$$

where “k is the constant for defining LOD” and s_{zero} is the standard deviation of the zero/blank" [Akard2002]

- 2 or 3 SDs is often what is used, refer to picture (I think it's neat) [Akard2002]

Overview

Substitution Approach

Write about other approaches here